INDUSTRY CHALLENGES

Data Retention and Archiving

Failing to establish retention policies and configuring archiving solutions to comply with organizational data retention requirements

Security and Compliance

For industries with strict data regulations, ensuring compliance during migration is non-negotiable

Cost Overruns

Especially for industries with stringent data regulations, maintaining compliance during migration is non-negotiable

Up to 94% of companies that experience a severe data loss never recover

The cost of data loss for the average business is between $18,000 to $35,000, while large-scale incidents can cost up to with lack of policies and compliance

$15.6 million
